

Window Down

by Alex Watt

Heading out to Norseman 'cross the Nullarbor
Lookin like the sky was about to pour
Man that day just turned around
And I watched it all with my window down

Seasons change and the winter's come
I head out West to where the hard work's done
Driving past that fresh turned ground
Wouldn't be the same without my window down

I love driving with my window down
Cool breeze blowin' the smell of wet ground
Hear that rain thunderin' sound
I love driving with my window down
Yeah I love driving with my window down

I had an old ute the HX was great
But now I got me an XR8
I love doin' laps of my home town
(and you) Bet your life I got my window down

I got the cool wind blowin' through my hair
It feels so good be out here
Give it a try when you're leaving town
You'll love drivin' with your window down

Old Koorda Town

by Alex Watt & Roger Corbett

Down the road down the track
Although I've left I keep going back
My heart drives me drives me on
To the place that was my home

Through the wheat fields of green
Back to that old Town I once dreamed
Of working soil breaking ground
Breaks my heart it's all gone now

Used to be my lifeblood
Used to be my home
Used to be the place my children played
Now familiar faces
Turn and look away
Old Koorda town I know I just can't stay

Drive for miles sun goes down
Coz all the roads lead to Koorda town
Had some friends who used to care
And I wonder are they still there

I don't live in Old Koorda town
And we don't work that Old Koorda ground
A part of me still planted there
Waiting for rain in the dusty air
Old Koorda Town I know I just can't stay

The Strong Become Weak

by Alex Watt

I'm standing here in front of you all
Been asked to have my say
But the words won't come tears well up
I stop turn away
In the silent expectation I can hear my heart beat
Emotions are running like a river tonight
The strong become weak

There's a time for laughter
There's a time for tears
There's a time to celebrate
The passing of the years
But I know when it comes my time to speak
The strong become weak

Got to get it together
It's easier said than done
Talking about family
Friends loved ones

It's an honour to be standing here
But I find it so hard to speak
Emotions are running like a river tonight
The strong become weak

Daddy's Boots

by Alex Watt & Roger Corbett

I want to drive the tractor I want to plough the ground
Gonna sit there next to Dad as we go round and round
Watching everything he does as we head up the field
Wishing I was old enough to take the wheel

But I'm just a boy wearing Daddy's boots
Not even 8 years old
(Got my) work clothes on with a bit of grease
(And a) coat for when I'm cold
When I'm with my Dad I feel like a King
As we drive off in the ute
But I'm just a boy wearing Daddy's boot

He taught me to drive it when I was only young Barley see over the dash made the old chooks run
Helping him out when I could there was always work to do
When he had a cup of tea I'd sit and have one too
Me and Dad out on the farm we're the best of mates
We'd have a laugh while we worked then I'd hear him say

Oh you're just a boy wearing Daddy's boots
Not even 8 years old
(Got your) work clothes on with a bit of grease
(An a) coat for when your cold
When you're with me son I feel like a King
As we drive off in the ute
But you're just a boy wearing Daddy's boots
Oh I'm just a boy wearing Daddy's boots

Watch The Sun Go Down

by Alex Watt & Roger Corbett

She looks to the West she's all alone
She remembers how he kissed her when he left home
He finally got a job but it took him interstate
She really wants him home but she knows she'll just have to wait

Hey she'll watch the sun go down see the stars come out
And wonder where he is tonight
She's missing him again wondering when
He'll be back in town so they can watch the sun go down

From a noisy truck cafe he calls her on the phone
He thinks about the tears she cried when he left home
He talks about the money and the life that they could buy
But it gets a little harder every time he says goodbye

Hey he'll watch the sun go down see the stars come out
And wonder how she is tonight
He's missing her again wondering when
He'll be back in town so they can watch the sun go down

He goes where the work is she stays at home
And they think about the better days to come
He tries not to worry and she tries not to care
'Bout that lonely feeling when you miss someone

Hey she'll watch the sun go down see the stars come out
And wonder where he is tonight
She's missing him again wondering when
He'll be back in town

Hey he'll watch the sun go down see the stars come out
And wonder how she is tonight
He's missing her again wondering when
He'll be back in town so they can watch the sun go down

Farmers Son

by Alex Watt & Roger Corbett

It's in my blood running through my veins
Has been for years it's still the same
And I find it hard to explain to you
The love I have for the job I do

Cos I'm a farmers son brought up on the land
And it's here I want to stay
A farmer boy just like me
Knows how to work all day
Gotta see the tough times through Gotta finish what we begun
Cos after everything's been said and done
I'm a farmers son

You may wonder why I feel so strong
But I know I'm right where I belong
It's a simple life a simple truth
That special sound rain on the roof

It's the feeling I get when it rains out here

I am hoping for another good year

Would It Be Love

by Alex Watt & Roger Corbett

You had me from that moment
Love at first sight
Had this crazy feelin'
This was right.

We took the long way home that night
Down by the river we lay
Talked for hours and counted stars
So much we had to say

Would it be love if I said I love you
True if I said I do
Though I hardly knew you then
I had a special place for you
Would it be a dream if I heard you tell me
You'd love me until the end
Spending all our days together
My lover and my best friend

We traveled roads together
It made us strong
Made a home and family
A place where we belong
The kids have all grown up now
It's back to you and I
We walk down by the river
Count the stars up in the sky

Guess it was love when I said I love you
True when I said I do
You've been right there beside me
Hearts together have seen it through
It wasn't a dream when I heard you tell me
You'd love me until the end
Spend the rest of our days like this
My lover and my best friend
